

QUG MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION / RENEWAL

Renewals for QUG membership are due on 1st January, so to renew your subscription for this year (or to join QUG for the first time) please complete the Membership Form on the reverse page of this notice.

As a member you receive two free issues of our journal Universalist each year plus a free copy of the QUG pamphlet which contains the written papers/articles from the conference.

Whilst most members choose to receive these publications as hard copies, the option is now available to receive them in e-form, at a reduced membership rate (see below). Please note that if you are receiving a paper copy of Universalist you may request to receive it in e-form as well, at no extra cost. Please contact our distributor (see inside cover), for more details.

If you include an email address on the application/renewal form we will put you on our e-list to receive additional e-newsletters and information unless you request otherwise.
